sults, have concluded that the folks are inclined to indulg our whims awhile longer, and let us continue to "keep store at the Bazaar. We are "much obliged," of course, for this, and propose to show that we are, in the coming year, by every means in our power. Just now we can mention a few things that ought to, and will, interest the money-saving

Our Clonk trade has been splendid, and for nice-fitting etvlish Wrans, none have excelled the Bazaar Cloaks, but it is not in keeping with our notions to risk carrying any of these goods over from one season lo another, so that, still having a few of the best styles, we can give any one in need of a Closk the greatest bargain ever offered in this line of

SELL EVERY CLOAK WE NOW HAVE

And it will be the part of wisdom for you to investigate the tion before deciding not to buy.

Have you all the Blankets you used? If not, and you will look through the few we have left from our big Blanket sales, you'il wonder you've not bought long before this. Besides these items that "Sara and Me" are sure you will find good values in every sense of the word, we have some other Specialties" to call your notice to in the way of ralue, and are a big dot to one needing inexpensive but nice Dresses for children. See these remnants. All our heavy Shawls must likewise go. If you ever expect to need a Shawl, now is the time to buy. Just as it is the time to get a hargain in Boots-big Boots and little Boots at prices to startle anybody except a regular Bazaar customer, who never is startled al anything "Sara and Me" do in the way of handing out big bargains. They naturally expect il. We expect to have a good deal of amusement out of these of-fers we're making preparatory to buying a spring stock omething like the fun we've been having in our Millinery Department in the past ten days-that will conlinue, of course, as long as Sara gets up such stylish Hate at the ridiculously low figures she does. No one need go hatless if they'll note the prices and styles given by "Sara and Me." Tis funny how we manage lt! Yee, that's what they all say, but that's the reason you can afford to buy of us. We'll try attend to the "managin"," and if we fail to-why, you'll get the benefits and bargains anyway, and that's what you

WOOLEN . REMNANTS Left from our big Dress Goods trade-all go at one-half their

"It iz now 30 years since a phellow with green goggles on and a white neck-tie offered tew sell me sumthing for 50 cts whitch he sed waz worth 5 dollars. I've forgot what it waz, but i remember it waz about az often az once a year ever since, i hav tried the same thing over and got beet every time.'

The green goggled fellow and his victims still live. There are those who will want four-dollar Boots for one dollar, and threedollar Hats for fifty cents. Now, we are not going to offer you Boots for $2 and tell you they are worth $4, but we propose to sell out the remainder of our stock of Boots

AT A BIG DISCOUNT

These were marked down at low cash prices and we have sold immense numbers of them, but we want to CLEAR OUT for the spring stock, and what we have left must go. The wintry weather is just on now, and people will do well to prepare for it.

We also propose to sell out our CLOAKS and WRAPS at LOW RATES-at and even below cost. Here is a chance for ARGAINS! In OVERCOATS and HEAVY CLOTHING we propose Bargains such as are rarely met.

Friends, we mean just what we say and no more, in these propositions. Our writing man never writes what "novels" nor "Far West" stories say, but just what he means as a business proposition.
